

Christinia Polomoff

Christinia Polomoff, PharmD, BCACP, BCGP, FASCP, is a Population Health Clinical Pharmacist at Hartford HealthCare Integrated Care Partners, and an Associate Clinical Professor at the University of Connecticut School of Pharmacy.

She has an active leadership role in ASCP as Director-at-Large nationally. She is currently the board liaison for ASCP's Students, New Practitioners, Fellows, Residents Workgroup. She co-chaired ASCP's National Medication Safety and Transitions of Care Committee for 3 years in 2019 – 2022. At the local level, she served on the Board of Directors and as interim President for the ASCP Connecticut Chapter.

She also serves on the Board of Directors for the Connecticut Pharmacists Association as First Vice President, and holds an appointment on the State of Connecticut Department of Development Services Institutional Review Board.

Dr. Polomoff graduated from the University of Connecticut with her Doctor of Pharmacy and Business Minor. She completed a PGY1 residency at the VA Connecticut Healthcare System followed by a PGY2 ambulatory care residency at The Johns Hopkins Hospital. She holds dual board certifications in ambulatory care and geriatrics.