Courtney Cianci

Professional Bio

Courtney Cianci is a final-year pharmacy student at Midwestern University-Glendale (Region G). She was born and raised in Greenville, Pennsylvania. She moved to Arizona to attend Grand Canyon University, where she received her undergraduate degree-Bachelor of Science in Biology. She has always enjoyed working with the older adult population, therefore joined ASCP to learn more about Geriatric Pharmacy and advocate for this special population. She applied to be a regional ambassador for ASCP because she wanted to be become more involved in ASCP, strengthen her leaderships skills and connection with others as well as learn how to grow the ASCP student chapter at her school.
