

2023

EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR AWARD
OUTSTANDING FACULTY AWARD WINNER

Elias B. Chahine, PharmD, FCCP, FASCP, FFSHP, BCPS, BCIDP

Professional Bio

Elias B. Chahine, PharmD, FCCP, FASCP, FFSHP, BCPS, BCIDP is a Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Palm Beach Atlantic University and a Clinical Pharmacy Specialist at Wellington Regional Medical Center. He has taught more than 1,000 pharmacy students, precepted 150 pharmacy students and residents, and mentored dozens of pharmacy learners and junior colleagues. He has written 9 book chapters and 110 articles on infectious diseases, antimicrobial stewardship, immunizations, geriatrics, pharmacy education, cultural sensitivity, and medical missions. He has presented extensively at local, state, national, and international pharmacy meetings. He is active in professional organizations and has served in various leadership capacities, including Chair of the Infectious Diseases Practice and Research Network, Chair of the ASCP Educational Affairs Council, and President of the Florida Society of Health-System Pharmacists. Dr. Chahine is the recipient of several awards in recognition of his teaching, practice, research, and service. He received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the Lebanese American University and completed a Pharmacy Residency at Bassett Hospital, affiliated with Columbia University. In addition, he completed an Academic Leadership Fellows Program through the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy and a Mentored Research Investigator Training Program through the American College of Clinical Pharmacy.