

2023 WOMEN'S SPOTLIGHT AWARD FINALISTS

Kelly Ulen, PharmD, BCGP, FASCP

Professional Bio

Kelly Ulen, PharmD, BCGP, FASCP, is an advocate for older individuals, driven by her experience with her mother's diagnosis of Frontotemporal Degeneration. Witnessing the challenges posed by the disease and the strengths/weaknesses of our healthcare system, Kelly's commitment for this cause has grown stronger.

Kelly is a Geriatric specialist at Upstate Community Hospital in Syracuse, NY. She is founding director of the PGY-2 Geriatric residency program and serves as a guest accreditation surveyor for other ASHP PGY-2 Geriatric Pharmacy Residencies. One fulfilling aspect of her work is witnessing the growth of her learners, who express their gratitude for her guidance.

Kelly contributes to her field through involvement in pharmacy organizations, publications, and presentations. She has served on boards for pharmacy associations and holds memberships in organizations at the forefront of improving care for older individuals. Her numerous publications, position papers, and posters have impacted the care provided to older individuals. Moreover, she serves as a member of The Senior Care Pharmacist editorial review board.

In summary, Kelly's dedication combined with her expertise and involvement in pharmacy organizations, publications, and educational programs, makes her a strong leader in geriatric care and candidate for ASCP's Women's Spotlight Award.
