

Michelle Hon (Outstanding Faculty)

Dr. Michelle Hon, an educator and leader in pharmacy practice, holds a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Roseman University of Health Sciences. She currently serves as the Director of Experiential Education (APPE) and Student Affairs for the Henderson Campus, and as an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Roseman University.

In her role at Roseman University, Dr. Hon coordinates and oversees the experiential education of up to 140 pharmacy students annually, ensuring the quality and effectiveness of their clinical rotations. She actively engages in teaching, using innovative methods to enhance student learning in Over the Counter Therapeutics, Pharmacy Immunization, Top 200, and PPCP courses. Dr. Hon's commitment to student development extends to mentoring, where she guides students in their continuous professional development as a faculty mentor, co-advisor for the ASCP student chapter, and advisor for the P1 through P3 class officers.

Dr. Hon joined ASCP as a student member during pharmacy school and has stayed involved to this day as a practicing pharmacist. She contributes significantly to the pharmacy profession through her involvement in various committees and professional organizations. In ASCP, she serves as the Nevada State Delegate, Co-Chair of the Student/New Practitioner Launchpad, and Co-Advisor for the Regional Student
