

Kristy Daub Falco is a clinical pharmacy specialist in geriatrics at the VA Connecticut Healthcare System in West Haven, Connecticut. After receiving her PharmD from the University of Connecticut, Dr. Falco completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at VA Connecticut and a PGY-2 Geriatric Pharmacy Residency at the Durham VA Medical Center in Durham, NC. She currently practices in the Community Living Center and with the Hospice & Palliative Care Interdisciplinary team. Dr. Falco is the PGY-2 Geriatric Pharmacy Residency Program Director and is a preceptor for pharmacy students, PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice residents and PGY-2 Geriatric Pharmacy residents. She is also a member of the residency advisory board for the pharmacy residency programs at VA Connecticut. Additionally, she is an adjunct assistant professor at University of Connecticut School of Pharmacy. Dr. Falco has been a member of ASCP since she was a student and is on the Board of Directors for the Connecticut chapter and currently represents Connecticut as a state delegate. She has also been actively involved on a national level and is a member and past chair of the Educational Affairs Council (EAC) and a member of the Pharmacy Education and Research Council (PERC).